

"In memory of our God, our faith, and freedom, and of our spouses, our children, and our peace."

An ancient warrior, a native inhabitant of this land, was a chief commander of his people's army. He was saddened because his people were at war. The war was not going well. Their army was in need of supplies and replacements. Without supplies and relief he watched his faithful warriors fight and die. He had sent epistles to the heads of state to appeal to their leaders to send more supplies with no response. His brave warriors fought with all of their might and finally won the war.

Word came from their capital city. The message was clear, there had been a taken over by people that called themselves King-men. They had placed a King over the people and had chased the nation's leaders out of the headquarters of their nation. When this commander heard this he tore his coat and on a piece of it he wrote, "In memory of our God, our religion, and freedom, and our peace, our wives, and our children" then fastened it to a pole and raised it as a banner. Then he put on his armor, knelt down in mighty prayer and asked God for the blessings of liberty to be upon his people so long as there was a band of believers remaining to possess the land. He then took his banner and went forth among the people waiving the banner for people to see and proclaimed with a loud voice, "Behold, whosoever will maintain this title upon the land, let them come forth in the strength of the Lord, and enter into a covenant that they will maintain their rights, and their religion, that the Lord God may bless them."

When he did this the people came from all around the country and joined with him till they had a great army. He led his people to the capital and they stood against the King-men. Their country was once again free.

It was then prophesied that there would come a day, near the time of the Second coming of the King of Kings when the people on this land would again be torn from their government and ruled over by wicked men. It was said that in that time someone would once again raise the "Title of Liberty" and rally the people to return to Liberty.

Though native Americans tell this story from over 2,000 years ago, it is true. Today, the "Title of Liberty" has been raised as a rally cry to Freedom and Liberty. Our nation has been overrun and ruled by wicked men. They neither uphold nor obey the Constitution. They sell our nation into slavery under specious taxes while our people stand in fear of their retribution. They are King-men, only today their king is a Corporation that rules this nation in fascism (business controlled by government). Our national government has been vacant since at least 1917.

It is my prayer, as it was that ancient commander's "Behold, whosoever will maintain this title upon the land, let them come forth in the strength of the Lord, and enter into a covenant that they will maintain their rights, and their religion, that the Lord God may bless them."

I pray that you who view this site will copy and attach it to your email and web sites. Spread it throughout the Land. We must awaken our people before all is lost. God bless you all.

A crucifixion scene with a figure on the cross against a dark background. The figure is Jesus Christ, with a crown of thorns and a loincloth. The background is dark and textured, possibly representing a night sky or a cave. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font.

MARY HAD A LITTLE LAMB

MARY HAD A LITTLE LAMB,
HIS FLEECES WAS WHITE AS SNOW.
AND EVERYWHERE THAT MARY WENT,
THE LAMB WAS SURE TO GO.
HE FOLLOWED HER TO SCHOOL EACH DAY,
T WASN'T EVEN IN THE RULE.
IT MADE THE CHILDREN LAUGH AND PLAY,
TO HAVE A LAMB AT SCHOOL.
AND THEN THE RULES ALL CHANGED ONE DAY,
ILLEGAL IT BECAME;
TO BRING THE LAMB OF GOD TO SCHOOL,
OR EVEN SPEAK HIS NAME.
EVERY DAY GOT WORSE AND WORSE,
AND DAYS TURNED INTO YEARS.
INSTEAD OF HEARING CHILDREN LAUGH,
WE HEARD GUN SHOTS AND TEARS.
WHAT MUST WE DO TO STOP THE CRIME,
THAT'S IN OUR SCHOOLS TODAY?
LET'S LET THE LAMB COME BACK TO SCHOOL,
AND TEACH OUR KIDS TO PRAY!